Dime Coinage to Continue.

NEW YORK, November 2.—Coinage of the new dimes will not be suspended, Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo says, taking cognizance of reports that such action was being considered by the Treasury Department because of the appearance of the artist's initials upon them. He said the initials were "obscure and insignificant," that they appeared on other coins and that the circulation of the dimes would continue.

Kooching is the name of one of Minnesota's counties.

Capt. and Mrs. James G. B. Lampert have as their guests at their quarters, at the Washington barracks, Capt. Lampert's brother, Lieut. Lester Lampert, U. S. A., and his bride, who arrived at Washington this morning from El Paso for a two-week visit. Mrs. Lampert was Miss Olympia Naquin of El Paso, her marriage to Lieut. Lampert taking place on October 25.

Mrs. J. William Kyle left today for Charles Town, W. Va., to attend the wedding of Miss Mary Brown and Mr. Kenneth Ferrine of New York.

The Misses Anderson have returned to the city and are at their apartment at Stoneleigh Court.

A quiet wedding took place today at noon at Holy Trinity Church, when Miss Alice M. Duvall, daughter of Mr. A. J. Duvall, became the bride of Mr. Herbert L. Kengla, son of Mr. J. Kengla. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a small gathering of relatives and friends.

The bride wore a modish traveling suit of brown cloth, with a brown velvet hat and a bouquet of violets and lilies of the valley.

Miss May Kengla, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor, and wore a green cloth suit with hat to match, and a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and carnations.

There was no reception, and Mr. and Mrs. Kengla left immediately after the ceremony for their wedding trip. They will be at home at the Arlington apartment after December 1.

The wedding of Miss Florence Rue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi L. Rue, 4236 Spruce street, Philadelphia, and William Newton Jackson of Salisbury, Md., took place last evening in the Chestnut Street Baptist Church, 40th and Chestnut streets.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. George D. Adams, pastor of the church. Miss Rue, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sister, Mrs. Edward A. Steele, as matron of honor, and Miss Ella May Thomas of New York as maid of honor, while the bridesmaids were Miss Helen Gay, Miss Maria Starr, Miss Catherine Ashton, Miss Margarette Holloper and Miss Elizabeth Buchanan.

After the ceremony there was a large reception at the Bellevue-Stratford, after which Mr. and Mrs. Jackson left on a honeymoon. They will return to Salisbury, Md., where they will be at home after January 1.

Mr. Jackson is a son of former United States Senator Jackson of Maryland.

GERMANS STORM RUSS POSITIONS ON STOKHOD

1,630 Prisoners Taken and Sanguinary Losses Inflicted, According to Berlin.

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, November 2, by wireless to Sayville.—In the army group of Gen. von Linsingen, the Westphalian and East Frisian troops, under command of Maj. Gen. von Dittfurth, stormed the Russian positions, which were advanced near and south of Wittonies, on the left bank of the River Stokhod. In addition to heavy and sanguinary losses suffered by the enemy, 22 officers and 1,508 men were taken prisoner. Three machine guns and three mine throwers were left in our hands. German losses were small.
